

Town of Pecos City
PUBLIC NOTICE
CALL FOR APPLICANTS
Hotel Occupany Tax Board

The Town of Pecos City is now accepting applications from interested individuals in the Hotel/Motel Industry, Business Industry, and alternates who would like to be considered for appointment to the Hotel Occupancy Tax Committee Board (H.O.T. Board). The H.O.T. Board is composed of nine (9) members, including two (2) non-voting members, appointed by the City Council for two-year terms. The Board includes the following positions:

1. Mayor (Non-voting)
2. Councilmember (1) (Non-voting)
3. Hotel/Motel Representatives (2) – One (1) Vacancy
4. Local Business Representatives (3) – Three (3) Vacancies (Preferably from the hospitality industry)
5. Alternates (2) – Two (2) Vacancies

The Board's primary responsibility is to make recommendations to the City Council regarding projects funded through Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) revenues. The Board prioritizes proposed projects and advises the Council on the allocation of surplus HOT funds. All expenditures must receive final approval from the City Council. The Committee meets on an as-needed basis in open session at 5:30 PM in the Council Chambers, 115 W. 3rd St., Pecos City Hall.
