Judge W.J. Bang called the meeting to order at 6:08pm

Mayor Venetta Seals welcomed everyone in attendance and thanked the County Commissioners and the Council for this Joint meeting for the benefit of the community.

Item 1. Discuss possible City/ County concerns and and/ or topics to be discussed in Austin on Pecos/Reeves County Day (March 4, 2015).

Council and County Commissioners discussed the topics below as important ones for Austin trip:

- Possible truck route by pass
- Hwy 285 capacity
- Traffic Lights by Loves Travel Truck Stop and Walthall Street
- Ramps off of Hwy 285 and I-20 for traffic flow
- Change in legislation for the hotel occupancy tax for the use of Ball Fields
- Ground Water District

- Legal proceedings against Reeves County Appraisal District for valuation of gas compressors
- Balmorhea State Park limited parking affecting the allowed occupancy inside the pool.
- Allowing 17 year olds into the Juvenile Justice System and the cost for the County

No Action Taken

County Commissioner, Paul Hinojos, briefly discussed and presented pictures on possible Recreation Center project that the County is interested in constructing. He did advise that nothing has been approved, but it could possibly be done with the corporation of both the City and County.

Council and County Commissioners also discussed possible quarterly Joint Meetings for the future.
